If you are planning a trip to Georgian Bay, or are already in the area, we invite you to make South Bay Cove Marina one of your destinations this summer.

Located just a mile and a half east of the Honey Harbour main channel we make a convenient stop on your way to the North Channel from Port Severn or returning. We also have many customers who make South Bay Cove their port for an extended stay while making day trips to the many anchorages and scenery of the 30,000 islands.

Our well-trained, friendly staff will ensure you make the most of our modern, clean facilities. We offer some nice touches such as complimentary coffee served each morning in the lounge. We also invite you to enjoy a meal at our onsite restaurant, Maple Canadian Pub. We have a great view for both indoor and outdoor dining.

The amenities were designed by boaters for boaters so we are confident you will enjoy your stay.
